Join us at A Film for Our Time—The War Room

For political junkies, pop culture aficionados, or those who just love a good story, the Garrett Park Film Society offers The War Room, the 1992 documentary film by D.A. Penne and Chris Hegedus that gives viewers a behind the scenes glimpse of maneuvers that helped elect a dark horse and unseat a sitting president named George H. Bush.

The issues: a shaky economy, free trade vs. protectionism, the appropriate use of the military; and scandal.

The cast: James Carville, George Stephanopoulos, Paul Begala, Stan Greenberg, Mandy Grunwald, Harold Ickes, Micky Kantor, Mary Matalin and others.

As a New York Times reviewer noted at the time of its release, the film “finds new facets of the story and manages to coax cliffhanging suspense out of a fait accompli.”
